Rizeware Solutions Launches AllRize, a Cutting-Edge App for the Most Productive and Profitable Legal End-to-End Software System

AllRize is a powerful combination of a fully-integrated CRM, Marketing, Matter Management, and Accounting Solution

Rizeware Solutions, a leading software development and consultancy services company, announced the launch of AllRize, a fully-integrated mobile application platform for iOS and Android, created to be the most productive and profitable end-to-end software system for the legal industry.

"AllRize enables law firms to utilize the right data at the right time to make the right business decision," said Erik Ruda, founder of Rizeware Solutions.

AllRize features four modules—marketing, CRM, matter management, and accounting—that seamlessly and strategically work together for firms to understand their business like never before. From quantifying your marketing efforts, to focusing on the most qualified opportunities, and to knowing where and how you're spending your time and money, AllRize is truly an end-to-end legal software solution. Powered by Microsoft Dynamics 365, AllRize also integrates with your existing Microsoft Office 365 applications.
