

AllRize Receives 2025 LegalTech Breakthrough Award For “Practice Management Innovation of the Year”

*Prestigious Annual Awards Program Recognizes Companies and Products
Driving Innovation in the Global Legal Industry*

FORT LAUDERDALE, Fla., November 13, 2025 – AllRize, a leading a leading provider of AI-powered software solutions for law firms, today announced it has been awarded “Practice Management Innovation of the Year” in the 6th annual LegalTech Breakthrough Awards program conducted by LegalTech Breakthrough, a leading independent market intelligence organization that evaluates and recognizes standout legal technology companies, products and services around the globe.

“AllRize is setting a new standard for what law practice management software can be,” said Bryan Vaughn, Managing Director, LegalTech Breakthrough. “In today’s increasingly digital legal landscape, law firms are under pressure to operate with greater speed, efficiency, and client focus, without sacrificing accuracy or profitability. AllRize helps these firms streamline internal operations, increase staff productivity, and deliver superior service to clients. We’re proud to name AllRize ‘Practice Management Innovation of the Year!’”

AllRize is a comprehensive, AI-powered law practice management platform built natively on Microsoft Dynamics 365 and powered by Copilot AI. AllRize integrates essential business functions such as CRM, marketing, matter management, document management, and accounting, into a single, seamlessly integrated platform.

The platform’s modular architecture allows firms to deploy the entire solution at once or just start with the features they need most and expand at their own pace. Each module is also fully integrated with the Microsoft Office tools most law firms already use, including Outlook, Teams, SharePoint, and more. Cloud-native and SaaS-delivered, AllRize simplifies IT management and enables secure, anytime-anywhere access for local, hybrid, and remote staff.

The AllRize practice management platform also integrates seamlessly with Microsoft Copilot AI and supports both Generative and Agentic AI capabilities. This empowers law firms to leverage AI for specific tasks such as client intake, communications, billing, trust accounting, calendar management, and more. As a result, firms can automate repetitive tasks, streamline workflows, and quickly make smarter decisions. Each customer receives white-glove onboarding and training to customize these capabilities for the unique needs of their firm.

“We sincerely thank LegalTech Breakthrough for recognizing the intelligent design and innovation of the AllRize platform,” said Erik Ruda, CEO of AllRize. “Just as important, we thank the growing number of law firms that have placed their trust in AllRize. We will continue to deliver useful innovations in practice management to ensure law firms stay competitive in today’s digital economy.”

The legal technology sector is transforming one of the world's most complex and vital industries. From AI-powered research and document automation to digital case management, e-discovery, compliance, and secure cloud-based solutions, innovations in legal technology are driving greater efficiency, transparency, and accessibility across firms, legal departments and the broader justice system.

The mission of the annual LegalTech Breakthrough Awards program is to highlight and recognize the world's most innovative companies and solutions shaping the future of legal technology. This year's program attracted thousands of nominations from over a dozen countries worldwide, reflecting the global momentum and breakthrough innovation fueling the LegalTech industry today.
